

Swap Meet and Donation Center for Families

Brief Description of the Project

Students run a swap meet or a donation center.

Full Project Description

This can be used for students and families to exchange or donate books, toys, clothing, tools, etc. with one another instead of throwing those items away in the landfill. During this activity students will report and document what items are being reused and how much. Students will also explain the benefits of reuse.